

Manatee County announces masks, other COVID safety protocols are optional at Administration Building

When the County Administration Building reopens for regular business hours on Monday, June 21, face masks will be optional for the public and employees inside the facility.

Originally found on MyManatee.org Read More